Journal of Mathematics and Applications (JMA) will publish carefully selected original research papers in any area of pure mathematics and its applications. Occasionally, the very authoritative expository survey articles of exceptional value can be published.

Manuscript, written in English and prepared using LaTeX, may be submitted in duplicate to the Editorial Office or one of the Editors or members of the Editorial Board. Electronic submission (of pdf or dvi file) is strongly preferred. Detailed information for authors is given on the inside back cover.
